CONSENT ORDER

The North Dakota Securities Commissioner has determined, and the Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, admits as follows:

1. On April 10, 2001, the North Dakota Securities Commissioner issued a Cease and Desist Order in the above captioned matter based on the fact that Steve Tengesdal solicited 1 person to invest in the Preferred Trust and Management investment scheme. Specific information regarding this matter is contained in the Affidavit of Steve Tengesdal, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
2. The solicitation was made in violation of section 10-04-04 N.D.C.C. because the Preferred Trust and Management program was not registered as a security in North Dakota, nor does the program qualify for any exemption from the securities registration provisions of the Securities Act.
3. The solicitation was made in violation of section 10-04-10 N.D.C.C. because Tengesdal was not registered as an agent in North Dakota, nor did the transaction constitute an exempt transaction under the Securities Act.
4. Each solicitation was made in violation of section 10-04-15 N.D.C.C. because the program, as a whole, is a scheme or artifice to defraud investors or potential investors. Mr. Tengesdal, however, asserts that he did not realize that program was a scheme or artifice to defraud investors.

5. Pursuant to section 10-04-16 N.D.C.C., when it shall appear to the Commissioner that any person has engaged in, or is engaging in, or is about to engage in any act or practice which is declared illegal in this chapter, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, issue any order and collect civil penalties against any person found in an administrative action to have violated any provision of the chapter in an amount not to exceed $10,000 for each violation.

6. The violations described above are sufficient grounds for the Commissioner to assess civil penalties against respondent pursuant to section 10-04-16 N.D.C.C..

7. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, has admitted the factual and legal conclusions contained in this Order, and enters into this Order willingly. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, acknowledges his/her right to a hearing regarding this matter to present arguments before the Commissioner, and has waived all rights to a hearing regarding this matter.

8. The following Order is necessary and appropriate in the public interest.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, THAT:

1. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, shall pay to the Securities Commissioner, pursuant to section 10-04-16 N.D.C.C., a civil penalty in the amount of $500.

2. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, shall pay to the Securities Commissioner's Securities Protection Fund all funds, which have been or will be received in profits, commissions or other payments from soliciting persons to participate in the program. Any additional funds received shall, within ten (10) days of their receipt by Steve Tengesdal, shall be paid to the Securities Protection Fund.

3. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, shall agree to cooperate with any investigation by the Securities Commissioner or any law enforcement agency, regardless of jurisdiction, and shall willingly and openly testify in any proceeding, be it administrative, civil or criminal in nature, in a truthful matter not inconsistent with the Affidavit submitted herewith (Attachment A).

4. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, shall and herein does acknowledge liability, pursuant to section 10-04-17 N.D.C.C., to each of the persons he solicited. Respondent, Steve Tengesdal, shall not contest any civil claim of liability to any of those persons based on any denial of applicability of that statute, or that the facts of this case do not give rise to a claim under that statute.

5. The Cease and Desist Order, as issued on April 10, 2001, shall remain in effect, and any violations of that Order can be pursued without any regard to this Consent Order.

6. This Order shall be effective upon signature of the Commissioner.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my hand and seal this 12th day of August, 2002.
